Q. 4. Answer the following questions. (10)

- A) What is a relevant fact? Consider the following and determine the „relevant facts“ which may be offered in evidence by the prosecution, should the police treat it as a murder case: Roger was found dead in his home where he lived with his wife Rosy and a younger cousin Peter. When the police arrived, Rosy and Peter told them that Roger had committed suicide by hanging from a hook in their store room. However, the body was lying on the floor of the store room and had strangulation marks on the neck. Peter told the police that Roger was taken off the hook as they believed him to be still alive. He also told the police that they had tried to revive Roger but in vain. The police closely observed the scene of occurrence and also noticed the following:

- (a) The store room had a hook in the ceiling but the hook had cobweb around it.
 - (b) A nylon rope was lying beside the dead body.
 - (c) Roger was wearing a sleeping suit.
 - (d) The storeroom is attached to the front bedroom which was used only as a guest room in the three BHK flat.
- Upon further investigation, the police also found that
- (e) Rosy and Peter were in a relationship.
