

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis grew out of a series of dialogues with my mentor, philosopher and guide Dr Deepak Tilak. Through his Socratic questioning he brought me close to the reality I had initially perceived, eventually enabling me to grasp its rich complexity. His comments on the chapter drafts are themselves a course in critical thought upon which I will always draw. His capacity to combine critique with an immediate empathy and commitment towards faculty and others engaged in struggle will always inspire me.

Many thanks to Mr Vijay - Manager Indian Tourism Development Corp, Andaman., who shared his rich experiences of initiating and promoting tourism on mainland and Andaman. It is impossible to reference the knowledge and insights gained from ongoing conversations with the hospitality workers, holiday planners, tourists and academicians.

I am indebted to my husband Dr C. Krishnaiah who gently offered counseling and unconditional support at difficult times. I am thankful to my children Shalaka and Anurag who displayed patience and co-operated throughout. I am grateful to my parents and In-laws who have motivated me throughout the writing of the thesis.

This thesis is a small tribute to an exceptional man my guru Dr Deepak Tilak who excepted to guide me, in spite of his commitments as the Vice Chancellor of Tilak Maharashtra University, Pune.
